

Just come in and see our new furniture.

Dear Amy:-

I didn't think I needed any furniture, but I got an invitation from the leading reliable furniture store in town to "just come in and look around."

I went and was so tempted by the beautiful, serviceable new things I saw that I bought a whole wagon load.

The prices were so reasonable and the things so pretty that I just couldn't help it. I got a nice, new, little chair for Baby John, he's so destructive.

Ja-Ja,

Lou.

P. S.—The store I went to was

WINTERGREEN POINT PARTY.

Young Men in Camp Entertained Their Friends.

The young men of Quaker Hill village who are spending a week at Wintergreen Point at Camp S-S-G, entertained a number of their friends at their camp Tuesday evening. Guests were present from out of town and also from the village, numbering about 50. The camp was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns. Singing was enjoyed, the feature of which was a selection rendered by a quartet composed of Misses Neva Todd, Millicent Comstock and Fred Cluthe of Jersey City and Earl Sargent of Norwich. Corn was popped over a camp fire and ice cream, cake and candy were served. The young men were proclaimed very successful hosts.

SAVED BY WATER WINGS.

Carried Along by Current, Mrs. Florence LaBayne Tried to Swim the Thames.

Mrs. Florence A. LaBayne of 34 Twelfth street, New London demonstrated the value of water wings as life savers Wednesday afternoon when with their assistance she succeeded in crossing the Thames from the Nameless Boat club to the Ship and Engine Co. where she was rescued from the water by C. Fay Chapman, timekeeper of the H. R. Douglas, Inc., assisted by Fred Belcher and Henry Brown. Mrs. LaBayne is not an expert swimmer but buoyed up by the wings she got out into the river farther than she intended.

Somewhat bewildered, Mrs. LaBayne decided it would be as easy to reach the Groton shore as to turn back. The current swept her along and she had a hard struggle to make headway toward land. As she neared the river bank a boy heard her cry for help and he brought the rescuers to the spot. They dove in and assisted her to safety. Mrs. LaBayne walked home by way of the railroad bridge and Thursday as apparently none the worse for her experience.

Mrs. Stamm Able to Sit Up.

Mrs. Charles Stamm of Ann street who broke her thigh six weeks ago was able to sit up for the first time since the accident, this week. She has received a Sunshine box from the Loyalty class of the First Baptist church, of which class she is a member.

NORWICH MEN FOR RIFLE TEAM

First Lieutenant William R. Dennison of Third Company Ranked With the Leaders in the Tryouts for Places on the State Team—His Score Was 651 and That of Sergeant H. F. Burdick 623.

In general orders, Adjutant General George Cole announced the result of the try-outs of members of the Connecticut National Guard for places on the Connecticut state rifle team at 1916. Seventy-four men, attached to the several arms of the state service, participated and 65 completed the courses. From this number 45 high men were selected as members of the squad and they may attend the final tryouts at East Haven range on September 2 and 3. The adjutant general's meeting in the casino to order of Major Earl D. Church, ordnance department. Those who have not already presented certificates of eligibility from their immediate commanding officers showing they have been members of the C. N. G. for at least 12 months, preceding the competition and have performed 75 per cent. or more of all military duties during that time, must present such certificates to Major Church on or before

1 o'clock Thursday morning, September 3. First Lieutenant William R. Dennison of the Third company, Coast artillery corps, was the first Norwich man to shoot. His total score was 651, which was considerably above the average of the marksmen selected after these preliminary trials of which the total score represents three, namely, a first tryout, a second tryout and then the final record trial. Lieut. Dennison was ninth place from the head of the list, which is led by Capt. George C. Freland, of Company D, Second infantry, with a score of 698. There were only two other men over 600 and only one over 650.

REV. E. GEORGE BIDDLE, D. D., AT NEW BRITAIN CONFERENCE

Sessions for A. M. E. Zion Church Bodies Are Being Held.

The sixth session of the District Conference, the eighteenth annual session of the Sunday school convention and the Y. M. C. A. convention of the New England conference of the A. M. E. Z. church, New Britain, of which Rev. J. Stacey Gurney is president, opened at the Y. M. C. A. building in New Britain, Conn., on Thursday morning. The session was characterized by lively music and wholesome testimonies of the hope in Christ.

Address by Norwich Pastor.

Rev. E. George Biddle, D. D., of Norwich gave a strong exposition of the third chapter of Exodus. Rev. T. E. Roach of New Haven and Rev. George H. Coffey of Hartford, recent transfers from the Philadelphia and New York conferences, were welcomed to membership in the New England conference. Several young people came forward for prayers. Ex-presiding Elder Rev. R. R. Ball of Hartford spoke words of encouragement to them.

Rev. Dr. C. S. Whitted of New Haven presided at the annual address as presiding elder, showing the good condition of affairs in the district. His report was discussed by Rev. Dr. J. W. Powell of Boston, Mass., president of the Sunday school union, were guests of the district.

Committees Named.

The following committees were appointed for the conference by the presiding elder: Credentials, Rev. J. W. Powell of Boston, chairman; G. H. Coffey of Hartford, secretary; Finance, Rev. W. H. Lamar of Winsted, B. Wallace of Willimantic; Finance, Rev. B. W. Swain of Boston, E. George Biddle of Norwich, C. C. Alleyne of Providence, S. V. Holland of Lynn, E. L. Richardson of New Britain and Mrs. P. H. Davis of New Haven; presiding elder's salary, Rev. E. George Biddle of Norwich; T. A. Tuten of Cambridge, N. R. Ball of Hartford, B. W. Swain of Boston and William Franklin of Derby; examination of local preachers, Rev. W. H. Ely of Bridgeport, G. H. Coffey of Hartford, T. E. Roach of New Haven, D. R. Scott of New Bedford, S. L. Whitted of New Haven, B. W. Swain of Boston, R. R. Ball of Hartford, T. A. Tuten of Cambridge, C. C. Alleyne of Providence, J. W. MacDonald of Waterbury.

Wednesday night there was a song service followed with a sermon by Rev. George Francis Green of New London and remarks by Bishop Walters.

The conference continued Thursday. Adjournment was taken at 12:30. The Sunday school session began at 2:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

This (Friday) evening a concert will be given in the interests of the New Britain church. Professor J. J. Williams is the director. Saturday at 10 o'clock there will be a praise service and at 11 o'clock unfinished business will be taken up, after which the convention will adjourn. Sunday there will be a love feast and communion at the local church.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The Goose Girl.

The Goose Girl, a romance centering around a king masquerading as a peasant, and a lost princess, whose identity was unknown, even herself, captivated the good sized audiences at all three performances at the Auditorium theatre on Thursday. The Goose Girl is a picture of the famous story of the lost princess, a struggle between the disguised king and a nobleman of a neighboring kingdom in which the nobleman is killed, the discovery of the body, imprisonment of one of the dead nobleman's servants, and his confession of the identity of the lost princess, who turned out to be the humble Goose Girl, were among the exciting incidents of the story.

The Paramount Travel film took the audience on a tour of Japan, giving them glimpses of the magnificent

Last of Services at Pine Grove Camp-ground.

The Ladies' Aid society of Pine Grove, Natick, announces that Mrs. Alice M. Welton of Hartford will be the speaker and message bearer at the services conducted under the auspices of the society on Sunday, Aug. 27th in the chapel building located on the Connecticut Spiritualist Campmeeting ground at Natick. This date closes the Sunday services for the camp season, but there may be an evening service held on Monday, conducted by Mrs. Welton, under the auspices of the society, announcement of which will be made later.

Apple Law Construed.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Frank H. Stadtmueller has received an opinion from Attorney General George E. Hinman, of Willimantic, on the interpretation of Chapter N. 131, Public Acts of 1915, concerning the sale of apples in closed cases. He believes the enforcement of the act providing for grading and packing of apples and the placing of a proper label on the carrier devolves upon the dairy and food commissioner. He gives Chapter No. 255, Public Acts of 1907, as authority for this opinion. He quotes as particular reference from this act "the term 'misbranded' shall apply to all articles of food, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or device regarding such article which shall be false or misleading in any particular." There can be no question that apples are articles of food within the meaning of the law.

REUNION OF THE WILLARDS.

This Year the Family Will Gather in Wethersfield.

The eighth annual reunion of the Willard family association will be held in Wethersfield and Hartford, September 3 and 4. The reunions have heretofore been held in and near Boston, where many of the officers of the association live. It was voted to hold the 1916 reunion at Wethersfield, the home of Josiah Willard, one of the early settlers of Wethersfield, coming from Concord, Mass., with the Rev. Peter Bulkeley, ancestor of Senator Morgan G. Bulkeley, in 1621. He was the oldest son of Major Simon Willard, of Hingham, Kent county, England.

The officers of the association are: President—Edgar L. Willard, Newburyport, Mass.; Vice Presidents—L. Willard Harris, Philadelphia; W. W. Flint, Concord, N. H.; Henry Kellogg Willard, Washington, D. C.; Treasurer—Ralph H. Willard, Boston, Mass.; Secretary—Walter I. Tougas, Boston, Mass.; Executive Committee—Frank H. Willard, Worcester; Susanna Willard, Cambridge; Chester Parker Willard, Still River, Mass.; Florence Willard Scott, Winchester, N. H.; Historian—C. M. Walker, Shrewsbury, Mass.

The secretary's notice reads as follows:

An informal reception will be held at the home of Edward W. Willard in Wethersfield (end of Hartford and Wethersfield trolley line), from 7:30 p. m. on the evening of Friday, September 2. The business meeting will be held at 11 o'clock, Saturday morning, at the Webb house, Wethersfield, where Washington and Rochambeau planned for the capture of Cornwallis' army at Yorktown.

W. A. Willard, No. 13 Clinton street, Hartford, will make reservations for any who may apply. The report of the publication committee for the forthcoming book of the Willard genealogy (now practically in press) will be interesting.

There were about 80 present at the 1914 reunion, and it is hoped about 100 will gather at this reunion. There are many historical attractions to and around Hartford and Wethersfield which will be of interest.

Two Killed at Grade Crossing.

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 26—Henry H. Wilson, an undertaker of this city, and Miss Frances Allen, a nurse, were killed late today when a Boston-bound train struck the automobile in which they were riding. The accident happened at a crossing in Acushnet, three miles north of this city.
